WOMEN HAVE CARE.

Hoboken Terminal to Give Women Exclusive Apartment.

New York, April 1.—A plan of reserving for the exclusive use of women the rear of all rush hour trains in the Hudson tunnel system connecting New York city, Hoboken and Jersey City was put into effect today and was pronounced a success by President McAdoo. The first car to leave the Hoboken terminal was crowded with women passengers many of whom were willing to stand in order to ride in their own car.
Several women, however, refused to ride in the special, one of them remarking that she much preferred to be where the men were. The plan was put into effect at the request of the Women's Municipal League.

Airship in Distress.

Berlin, April 1.—Gravest fears were entertained for the safety of Count Zeppelin and 14 others aboard his new airship. The ascent was made today at sunrise to make a flight from Friedrichshafen to Munich. A terrific gale arose shortly after the flight. The airship reached Munich in a strong wind and a descent was not attempted. It was driven in a northeastern direction. Soldiers in automobiles and cavalry are following.

The Zeppelin airship was seen flying over a town this afternoon forty miles northeast of Munich. It was headed over the Bohemian mountains.

Coal Miners Strike.

MacLeod, Alberta, April 1.—The international federation of miners ordered a strike today in Southern Alberta, East British Columbia, as the result of a failure to agree on the wage scale.

Old Nick.

President Nicholas Brown, for whom Brown University was named, was fond of quizzing small boys. One day, while walking in the streets of Providence, he came upon a little fellow who attracted his notice. "How do you do, my boy?" said the president. "What is your name?"
"My name is Harry, sir," replied the child. "Harry, is it?" returned President Brown. "And did you know he evil one is often called Old Harry?"
"Why, no, sir," answered the boy.
"I thought he was called Old Nick."

QUAKER MUSINGS.

Even when her sight is perfect the reckless girl wears specks.
A fellow doesn't have to be an athlete to jump at conclusions.
A man may have a smoking jacket without having clothes to burn.
Can a fellow bring a girl to time by arriving her picture in his watch?
Long engagements demonstrate that keeping company is cheaper than keeping a wife.
You can't always make the head of a house believe that two heads are better than one.
Blotches—"The man who is always talking about his achievements might employ his time to a better advantage." Siobhans—"Yes, he might be talking about ours."
"A man deserves a great deal of credit for keeping his troubles to himself," remarked the wise guy. "Yes, especially when so many people want to borrow them," added the simple guy.

A Man's Opinion of Spring Hats.

Easter will come on the 11. It is too early to predict just what the new hats will be like. From the few young ones we have seen the merry widow seems to have married the derby. The issue resembles neither parent. The milliners were determined to make something that would keep anyone from trimming her old hat over, and they did it.—Owensboro Inquirer.

Mr. Lory in Nashville.

The Nashville Banner says of a man who is popular in Paducah: "Mr.
Jack H. Lory, a former resident of Nashville, who has many friends here, entertained a congenial party at dinner last night at the Golf and Country club. The party included Mr. W.
A. Stuart of Cincinnati, who is here with Mr. Lory; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gray, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Warner, Mr. and Mrs.
Wade Kirkpatrick, Miss Louise Clark, Miss Bessie Dunbar, Miss Estelle Shook, Paul M. Davis and Dr.
R. E. Fort. Some of the party spent the afternoon on the golf links and the others joined them at 7 o'clock, when an elaborate dinner was served at a prettily arranged table."

Farwell Compliment.

Miss Sara Epperson, who has spent the past three months in Nashville with her mother, Mrs. Lula B. Epperson, during her school vacation, returns to Fairmount tomorrow for a year's stay. This afternoon she is the honoree of a pretty farwell compliment given by her cousin, Miss Mary Helm Clark, of Twenty eighth avenue. It is an informal but prettily arranged tea, attended by a small and congenial company of young girls.—Nashville Banner.

Miss Epperson is a niece of Mr.
Edward H. Bringham of this city.
She has visited in Paducah with her mother, the family of Mr. B. H. Scott.

ted Prof. W. H. Bartholomew, of

SISTER'S TRICK

But it all Came out Right.

How a sister played a trick that brought rosy health to a coffee fiend is an interesting tale:
"I was a coffee fiend—a trembling, nervous, physical wreck, yet clinging to the poison that stole away my strength. I mocked at Postum and would have none of it.
"One day my sister substituted a cup of piping hot Postum for my morning cup of coffee but did not tell me what it was. I noticed the richness of it and remarked that the coffee tasted fine but my sister did not tell me I was drinking Postum for fear I might not take any more.
"She kept the secret and kept giving me Postum instead of coffee until I grew stronger, more tireless, got a better color in my sallow cheeks and a clearness to my eyes, then she told me of the health-giving, nerve-strengthening life-saver she had given me in place of my morning coffee. From that time I became a disciple of Postum and no words can do justice in telling the good this cereal drink did me. I will not try to tell it, for only after having used it can one be convinced of its merits." Ten days trial shows Postum's power to rebuild what coffee has destroyed. "There's a Reason." Look in pags. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville." Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.
